

Thanks for reading the Official Newsletter for HOG Chapter #5087. It's officially storm season in Oklahoma! Hopefully, you've found chances to get out and ride when the sun has been shining, or at least when it hasn't been "get in your shelter" weather. We've had the first Bike Night of the season and we're looking forward to a summer full of fun, friendship, and rides! Come on out and ride with one of the most active HOG Chapters; you'll be glad you did! We'll also have plenty of opportunities to support our sponsoring dealer: Fort Thunder Harley-Davidson.

And now a word from our Chapter Director:

Hello my fellow Riders!

May is busy with so many rides, events and FUN!

Too many to list all but here are a few...

May 11 LOH ride to Ponca City, May 17 Bike Night, May 18 Woodward to where the Original Rooster began 25 years ago, May 19 PIGnic, May 30 ride Blanchard Veteran's Memorial Dedication, and June 6-8 Rooster Ride (25th Anniversary).

Please have your rooms booked for the 2024 Rooster Ride (June 6-7-8) and arrange ahead to have had your bike(s) inspected and serviced at Fort Thunder. Remember FREE inspection for the Rooster Ride so get it scheduled ASAP!

There are two Storm Rider officer positions open:

1. Ladies of Harley (LOH Officer) Sheri Elliott has done a wonderful job this year to get the Ladies of Harley off to a great start! Are YOU the one to take up the lead from here? Let me know...
2. FundRaising Officer (Revenue Officer) Ashli took this on alongside her duties as Activities Officer and needs more hands. It may be best to get someone in charge to continue her excellent work in fundraising so she can further focus on the MANY activities planned. We need help. Is it YOU? Let me know...

Here's to the Smiles and Miles in 2024... let's RIDE & HAVE FUN!

Cool Hand

From our Membership Officer:

The purging of non-renewed membership has been completed. At this time, there are 122 members in our wonderful family. Let's keep it growing.

Thanks,

Valkyrie

The Lead Photographer has Some Words:
