

July ★★

Thanks for reading the Official Newsletter for HOG Chapter #5087. July is already proving busy and we're just getting started! This month features some weekday rides and evening rides to beat the heat. Be on the lookout on the Facebook page for upcoming rides and event. Speaking of events, we've got plenty. The 2nd Annual Redneck swim party is approaching. The Steury's are generously opening their home and pool as well as suppling pulled pork, ribs, and brisket: please bring a shade (if you have one), chairs, a side dish, and your beverage of choice. Thank you Rick and Lore! For you daredevils out there, there will be a ride to the Evel Knievel Museum. Be sure not to miss bike night or other events hosted by our sponsoring dealer: Fort Thunder Harley-Davidson! Whatever you choose to do, be safe and we'll see you out there!

And now a word from our Chapter Director:

Hello Storm Riders!

It's July and Summer is here! The events calendar is full of fun activities for every weekend and then some. Among vacations, pool parties, bike nights, Sturgis, rallies and rides: there's so much happening!

Keep up to date with the planned events and rides under the Events tab on the Facebook Storm Riders Family page and join us.

Together... let's RIDE & HAVE FUN!

Cool Hand

From our Membership Officer:

Greetings,

I'd like to say that our last Bike Night was great, we have added 6 new members to our supurbulous family. Also, I'd like to welcome Cory Stephens back to the family where he belongs. This puts our membership totals up to 138. Let's keep up the good work.

Thanks,

Valkyrie

From our Head Road Captain:

Good day everyone,

The Rooster Ride was another success and I look forward to riding with everyone again next year. If you have any comments or suggestions, please let me know.

Summer is here and in full swing. You will see a little change in our rides and times. We will work to have more evening rides and morning breakfast rides, etc. The rides during the day will tend to be shorter on average and have more frequent stops to make sure we all stay hydrated.

We are already halfway through the year (my how time flies!). With that, it is time to start looking forward to next year. If you are interested in being a road captain, Asst. Head Road Captain or Hear Road Captain, you should talk to Just Obi and myself (Timex). We can let you know the steps you will need to take to make it happen.

Here are the upcoming rides for July. See the Facebook page for detailed information on the rides.

Evel Knievel Ride – Friday July 12th – Sunday the 14th.

Bike Night and the After Bike Night Ride – Friday July 19th.

Ride to Alabaster Caverns (LOH Sponsored) – Saturday July 27th.

August New Member Ride – Sat Aug 3rd.

Remember to Have Fun, Stay Safe, and Ride often. See you out there on our rides.

Chris "Timex" Hazen

Did you know?

The town of McCloud hosts an annual black berry festival and has established itself as the “Blackberry Capital of the World”, according to President Harry Truman. That festival is coming up fast! July 12 & 13 will see the town of McCloud host vendors, parades, games, live music, and blackberries. For those who aren’t going on the Evel Knievel ride, get yourself to McCloud and enjoy some fruit-filled fun!

*Chapter Meetings are the second Wednesday of the month at Chelino’s Mexican Restaurant, 8966 S. Western Ave., Oklahoma City, OK 73139.

Fort Thunder Harley-Davidson
Dealership Challenge

2024

RideNow PowerSports Harley Dealership challenge.

John and Fort Thunder are sponsoring a dealership challenge for 2024. Ride to the RideNow owned Harley Dealerships and get a picture of you, your Harley, and his flyer in front of the Harley Dealership. Make sure to have a date with in your picture or in the title. Drop the picture in the Dealership Challenge folder on our StormRiders family page.

Winners are the ones who visit the most Harley-Davidson Dealerships owned by RideNow PowerSports. 12 total excluding Fort Thunder Harley-Davidson (List Below). Minimum to enter the contest is 3 Dealerships not including Fort Thunder.

In the event of a tie then the tiebreaker is the Rider who achieved their visits the quickest. Example, If Joe and Bob each have 8 HD dealerships, Joe completed it in Sept. Bob completed his in Nov, then Joe wins.
